In the musical theatre world, there are those who can sing, those who can dance and those who can act. Then there are those who are equally good at all three – these performers are known as ‘triple threat’!

After 16 weeks of training in singing, acting and moving with some of Hong Kong’s leading professionals, our very own cast of 30 talented young triple threats present Ssshhh...! – a musical retelling of the much-loved classic fairy tales The Golden Goose, The Gingerbread Boy, The Real Princess and Rapunzel.

Triple Threat is YAF’s programme for teenagers designed to enhance their potential for becoming strong, well-rounded performers. Throughout the training, participants are introduced to classical and modern forms of musical theatre and exposed to an array of vocal techniques, character development methods and dance styles.

Hong Kong Youth Arts Foundation

The Hong Kong Youth Arts Foundation (YAF) www.hkyaf.com is a charity that provides access to high quality, non-competitive arts experiences for all young people aged 5 to 25. Established in 1993 by Lindsey McAlister OBE, YAF organizes inclusive and inspirational projects that reach out to young people of all cultures, backgrounds, languages and abilities, and actively creates opportunities for disadvantaged and underprivileged young people. Each year we reach over 800,000 young people through our projects, exhibitions and performances.

Seeking Teenage Performers

We are seeking young and energetic actors, singers and dancers between the ages of 14 and 25 to take part in our flagship musical A Chorus Line this Winter!

Auditions take place on 11 – 12 May 2013
