

Date

1-2/8 (Fri-Sat),
4-9/8/2014 (Mon-Sat)
12:10pm

Venue

theSpace @ Surgeons Hall
(Venue 53)

“Everyone is leaving the city, I have no CHOICE. The lottery is my last hope.”

A Chinese lady who randomly won the immigration lottery. It is a story about her hilarious day at the immigration office, where she shows she is determined and driven to have this random new identity. Hoping the god of approval has landed on her, starting a so called good new dream.

Production Team

Director/ Script/ Performer	Cathy SK Lam
Producer/ Performer	Angel SY Chan
Performer	Mimi Lo
Lighting Designer/ Stage Manager	Vincy Leung
Assistant Stage Manager	Kyle Ng    Katherine Leung
Public Relation Officer	Mary Cheng

ThreeWoods Playwright was registered as non-profit theatre company in 2011, formed by a group of young theater artists based in Hong Kong. They are young and vibrant, keep uncovering and reflecting issues in the society through their plays.

Besides producing performance, ThreeWoods Playwright also initiated the “Suspended Ticket for Young Generation Programme” for subsidizing students from low-income families to watch theater productions and have direct sharing with artists, targeting to reduce the gap between art and the society.

To know us more, please visit: <http://www.aboutTHREWOODS.com/en> or contact us by email at info@aboutthreewoods.com

<https://www.facebook.com/threewoods>

<https://twitter.com/aboutthreewoods>

- ※ The programme lasts for approximately 40 minutes without intermission.
- ※ Performance in English, few Cantonese.